North Meck HS 21st Century Skills Indicator

- *Questions do not extend learning
- *Demonstrates no adaptability and agility of mind
- *Cannot access, analyze and synthesize information
- *Asks few questions
- *Attempts collaboration with little success
- *Demonstrates little adaptability and agility of mind
- *Demonstrates some critical thinking skills and asks questions
- *Demonstrates collaboration
- *Demonstrates some adaptability and agility of mind
- *Demonstrates critical thinking skills and asks good questions
- *Demonstrates initiative and influential peer leadership through collaboration
- *Demonstrates adaptability and agility of mind

Level I Intensive

I. Academic and/or Behavior Contract II. Meeting with grade level PLC III. Parent & Staff

Level II - Strategic
I. Student teacher conference II. Remediation and/or Tutoring
III. Qualifiers and Re-Test

Level III - Basic
I. Objective Mastery Notebooks
II. Completing Mastery at 80% plus
III. Maintaining a strong academic and behavior focus

Level IV - Above Grade Level
I. Completing Mastery at 90% plus
II.Functions as a Critical Thinker
III. Engages Peers in Crucial Conversation

- * Little to no ability to successfully collaborate
- *Behaviors interfere with being a professional student
- *Participation does not positively engage peers and instructor
 - *Difficulty accessing, analyzing and synthesizing information
 - *Demonstrates little curiosity and ability to extend own learning
 - *Demonstrates few characteristics of professional student
 - *Accesses, analyzes and synthesizes information
 - *Demonstrates some curiosity and imagination and attempts to extend own learning
 - *Often demonstrates characteristics of a professional student
 - *Successfully accesses, analyzes and synthesizes information
 - *Demonstrates curiosity and imagination and extends on learning
 - *Actively participates and engages both peers and instructor

How Will We Respond When Students Stop Learning?